Notes

A daughter of an earl, Lady Elizabeth Chathamson was sixteen when she was presented at court. Her first Season in London, she fell in love with a lieutenant in the Navy, to the disgust of her family. Her father forbade contact with the boy, Lieutenant Alexander Hawkins. She continued to meet him secretly, and before the year was out, they had eloped.

He was soon promoted to Master & Commander, and on his first command assignment, he took Elizabeth with him. For four years she sailed with him on his command, until the birth of their son, Daniel.

Now that Daniel has joined the Royal Navy as a midshipman on a ship commanded by his godfather, Captain Armitage, Elizabeth Hawkins has grown bored. She desires to return to life at sea with her husband when he returns from his current cruise.
